Dear Sir:

Please find herewith enclosed application for passport from the Secretary of State, Mr. Meyers having filled it out before a notary public and returned it to me saying that I should try and have him and his wife put upon the same passport. In as much as he has not given his wife's name, I suppose you can just say John E. Smith and wife. If this is informal, then just have the passport issued to John E. Smith and forward to me by first mail.

Sorry I was not here the evening you came done, but was obliged to go to New York, hence was not able to keep my engagement.

Very respectfully,

Mr Thomas Morrison

Dear Sir,

Your answer to my application for a passport was duly received; I notice that you require me to fill another blank form enclosed in your letter;
and as by some mistake it was missing I'll endeavor to explain my case in this letter.

My father came to this country when

as is customary I believe; now this is my case in brief, I return to you the same application with this explanation and my father's naturalization papers, trusting that you will either send me the passport, or the necessary form of application.

Hoping to hear from you soon.

I am truly yours
Edward D. Blum
1024 Park Ave - (over)
N.Y. City

12 years old, therefore when 21 was naturally a citizen, he took out the enclosed naturalization papers in 1874, two years before my birth; I was born in St Germain en Laye near Paris in 1876, Sept. 24, being declared as an American to the authorities there; In 1888, October, I left Paris at the age of 12 and have lived here ever since, voted at every election on my father's papers.

P.S. I also include a blank form which I filled as I deemed proper, hoping that it will prove satisfactory.

Truly yours
E. Plum

Hon. John Hay,

Washington, D.C.

Sir:-

Your favor of the 21st ult. per David J. Hill Esq. assistant secretary, in regard to the application of Dr. Li Tai Wing for a passport, was duly received. In reply will state that at the time of his birth in San Francisco, Cal., we learn there was no law requiring a registration of such birth to be filed or recorded, besides the midwife who attended his mother was a chinese woman, and his father being a physician and no outside physician called, we are informed it was not deemed necessary even if required to have such birth registered so that he cannot obtain any such certificate for the reason his birth was not registered. Before applying for the passport we obtained the affidavits of two reputable white citizens of San Francisco as to his birth and a certified copy of his registration as a voter in said city, which we herewith enclose.

There are many chinese children born in this city, to our knowledge, of whom there is no registration of their birth as there is no law requiring such registration, the only law being a moral obligation on the part of white physicians attending confinement cases to report the birth to the Health Office, but where midwives attend (either white or chinese) without the aid of a practicing physician no report is made.

Hoping this explanation and the proof adduced will be sufficient and that a passport will be issued to him

We remain
Very respectfully yours

I see from the Rules Governing the issue of Passports that my name in the application should be the same as in the certificate of Naturalization, it differs in the County Clerk making the mistake and writing it Johnson in place of Janson. - Daniel Reinhardt the County Clerk whose name is affixed to the Certificate and who wrote it has been Dead for about 30 years and I know of no way to have it corrected.

When I first came to Effingham in 1865 after the close of the Civil War. the people here, nearly all called me Johnson, and some do so yet, and the County Clerk with whom I was personally acquainted and who never asked me what my name was I suppose wrote it as he heard me called by Bernard Johnson
